

Executive Biography

Duane S. Meszler

Vice President of Underwriting Strategy

In his role as Vice President of Underwriting Strategy, Duane is responsible for helping strengthen Preferred Mutual's underwriting capabilities and advancing the company's underwriting strategy.

Duane joined Preferred Mutual in 2018 as Personal Lines Underwriting Manager for New York and New Jersey. During his tenure, he has executed strategic profitability initiatives to positively impact the company's combined ratio. Meszler has represented Underwriting on various projects and committees, including the launch of pricing models and Change Marshal. His work has also focused on broader topics such as expense savings, underwriting control measures, and developing property management tools.

Meszler holds a Bachelor of Science degree in History and Government from Campbell University.