

Executive Biography

Jessie Remillard

Vice President of Human Resources

Jessie is responsible for advancing Preferred Mutual's workforce strategy, organizational capability and leadership development in support of the company's long-term priorities and People-First commitment.

As a member of Preferred Mutual's Senior Leadership Team, Jessie helps strengthen leadership capabilities, advance strategic workforce planning, and prepare the organization for significant business and technology initiatives.

Jessie holds a master's degree in Organizational Management from Sage Graduate School and a bachelor's degree from SUNY Oneonta. She is a Society for Human Resource Management Certified Professional and holds a Strategic Workforce Planning Certification.