

Executive Biography

Thomas B. Donahue

Vice President of Product Strategy

Tom is responsible for the development and execution of product strategy, including the product vision, product roadmap and requirements for success. In addition, he is responsible for competitor monitoring and identifying opportunities to improve results while staying ahead of a quickly changing marketplace and economic environment.

With more than 15 years of experience in the insurance industry, Tom has held several roles in underwriting and product. He brings a strong record of collaboration with cross-functional teams and the formation of relationships with internal and external partners.

Tom has an M.B.A. degree from Le Moyne College, as well as numerous professional designations, including CPCU (Chartered Property Casualty Underwriter).